MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: USAG-Ansbach Curfew Hours for Family Members Under the Age of 18 Years Old, Policy Letter #10

1. REFERENCES:

- a. DoD 6400.1, Family Advocacy Program, 23 June 1992
- b. AR 608-18, The Family Advocacy Program, 1 September 1995
- c. USAREUR Child Supervision Policy, 7 August 2002

2. Department of the Army policy reflects a strong commitment to the prevention of child abuse and child neglect. The intent of that policy is to ensure that children are continuously provided appropriate supervision, afforded a safe and healthy environment, and are protected from hazards. In addition to the USAREUR Child Supervision Policy the following curfew hours apply to family members under the age of 18 years old (who have not yet graduated from high school) in the USAG-Ansbach.

3. Within the USAG-Ansbach communities, all children/youth under eighteen (18) years of age and not yet high school graduates are subject to a curfew as follows:

- a. Hours of curfew are 2200 hours to 0600 hours, Sunday through Thursday, and 2300 hours to 0600 hours, Friday and Saturday. Sponsors will ensure children under eighteen (18) years of age and not yet high school graduates are indoors during these hours.

- b. Exceptions to this policy are recognized only under the following circumstances:

- (1) Children are in the physical presence of a parent or designated adult.
- (2) Children attending special school, church, or youth activity sponsored social or sports activities, which extend past the curfew hours, may remain until the end of the activity.
- (3) Children participating in a work activity, such as baby-sitting, may continue to work until released by their employer.

c. Parents or guardians are responsible to provide children affected by the exceptions outlined above a written explanation of the reason they are outside during curfew hours. This explanation must be in the possession of the children.

d. Within a reasonable time after the event, children will return home by the most direct and expeditious route.

e. The Military Police will strictly enforce this policy. Failure to comply with this policy will result in chain of command involvement and may result in revocation of government housing and/or other adverse administrative actions.

5. It is the responsibility of every member of the Ansbach and Illesheim communities to report suspected incidents of child abuse or neglect to the Military Police in Ansbach (CIV 0981-183-637/643; Illesheim CIV 09841-83-565/581).

6. Failure to comply with the above stated policy could result in a referral to the Military Police and/or the Civilian Misconduct Action Authority.
